DDL COURSE

DEMAND DRIVEN LEADER (DDL)

What is the DDI

The DDI Demand Driven institute is a global organization driving global change. Thanks to its vast network of partnerships, DDI is changing the way businesses think, plan, operate, and develop. Every entrepreneurial reality will now be able to evaluate whether to reiterate methodologies developed 50 years ago, or to make a real change of paradigm.

Benefits and Objectives of the course

The course is aimed at issuing the Demand Driven Leader Professional (DDLPP) international certification. DDLPP certification is the absolute reference at an international level for anyone wishing to apply the Demand Driven MRP (DDMRP) methodology and the Demand Driven Operating Model (DDOM) which, thanks to its proven effectiveness, is arousing much interest in the world.

The course aims to acquire the skills to manage this new methodology in an adaptive way at a tactical level. During the course the students will enter into the merits of the methodology.
