

DDP COURSE

DEMAND DRIVEN PLANNER (DDP)

What is the DDI

The DDI Demand Driven institute is a global organization driving global change. Thanks to its vast network of partnerships, DDI is changing the way businesses think, plan, operate, and develop. Every entrepreneurial reality will now be able to evaluate whether to reiterate methodologies developed 50 years ago, or to make a real change of paradigm.

Benefits and Objectives of the course

The course is aimed at issuing the Demand Driven Planner Professional (DDPP) international certification. DDPP certification is the absolute reference at an international level for anyone who intends to apply the Demand Driven MRP (DDMRP) methodology which, thanks to its now proven effectiveness, is arousing much interest and results globally.

The course aims at acquiring the skills to manage the planning and execution of operational activities in an adaptive way.

During the course the students will enter into the merits of the methodology.
